english biography

Tobias Freund has been involved in the music business as sound engineer and producer for the past 25 years. His love and knowledge of music is wide spread. Besides working in a commercial sound studio, he has been concentrating on many different musical ventures of his own:

"Sieg über die Sonne" together with Dandy Jack (Martin Schopf), "'Atom™ & Pink Elln" works of improvised live performances with Atom Heart (Uwe Schmidt), "NSI. non standard institute" with Max Loderbauer, former part of "Sun Electric" and his solo project "Pink Elln, the electronic dream plant".

"Tobias." is his latest solo work focusing on dance music with tracks made purely for the dance floor.
