

NSI - Clara Ghavami Extended (Luciano Mix)

Cadenza

12" // £6.49

Luciano & Tobias Freund's killer 13 minute edit of NSI's original track, a powerful and unconventional floor-filler twisting "minimal" templates into something much closer to classic soundscaping. Taken from last year's 'Max Binski' EP from the NSI duo of Tobias Freund (Pink Eln) and Max Loderbauer (Sun Electric), this cut rises out of the isolation tank and into a crazy, heaving landscape of fluid shapes and odd angles. Underpinning it all is a complex rhythm that's pure Luciano, powered by a stuttering kick drum and some hypersyncopated squiggles, pumping and building until breaking open around the five-minute mark with quietly riotous hi-hats and an insistent snare marking time until total meltdown.
